VOTES AGAINST FARM AGENTS

Fiscal Court By Party Vote Refuses to Make Appropriation.

REPUBLICANS OPPOSE IT

Court to Hold Two Sessions a Month—First and Third Tuesdays.

The Christian County Fiscal Court met in regular monthly session Tuesday March 5. The session lasted through Wednesday. Most of the session was taken up with routine matters of allowing claims, making orders, etc. The court voted to hold bi-monthly sessions on 1st and 3rd Tuesdays beginning with April term.

A motion passed unanimously to purchase for the county a Duplex Burroughs Adding machine. The old smallpox pest house at the County Farm was ordered repaired. Geoffrey Morgan, State Farm Agent, and G. T. Wyatt, District Farm Agent, appeared before the court and asked for an appropriation of $2,500 from the county to assist in employing a white and a colored farm agent and a canning club demonstrator. This was defeated by a strict party vote, the four Republican magistrates and Judge Champlin voting against same.

It now looks like this county will have to be without a Farm Agent and canning club demonstrator for this year. This is to be regretted seriously and it is hoped that the Fiscal Court will change its mind in time to prevent our taking this backward step in agricultural progress of the nation.

GERMANS MAKE WIDE USE OF PAPER IN PRODUCING NEEDLED ARTICLES.

By T. N. SANDIFER, (International News Service Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, March 6.—New information concerning the wide use of various essential articles reached here through official channels.

Some of the articles now being manufactured almost exclusively of paper are shirts, handkerchiefs, scarfs, towels, children's clothing, aprons, women's purses, nets, bags, tablecloths, napkins, rugs, trimmings, etc.

This is only a partial list. Underwear, men and women's articles of clothing and a numerous list of essentials are being made of paper.

The articles are made from paper yarns, raw and colored, which are used for knitted goods—hosiery, gloves, cravats and suspenders. Recent dispatches mention paper trousers. Paper trousers held up with paper suspenders make a comfortable and mind-restful costume for the boulevard.

Other materials being utilized are cocoon fiber, oiler bark, hoptendrils, herbs from marshes, nettle stems, pent, boom, etc.

To encourage the use of the new styles a recent exhibition was held at Chemnitz, Saxony.

The German Society of Manufacturers of Underwear, which has its seat, so to speak, at Chemnitz, arranged for a series of demonstrative lectures on the articles on exhibition and the great extent to which they can be utilized.

German weavers, because of lack of yarns, are reported to be making increasing use of paper yarns. The Government is even expected to requisition the paper yarns stock for army needs. It is said that the consumption is so large that the mills cannot meet the demand.

DESTROYING BRIDGES.

The Russians have begun destroying bridges on the trans-Siberian railroad between Lake Baikal and the Chinese frontier. John F. Stevens, chairman of the American Railway mission, reported to the state department. This may prevent Ambassador Francis from reaching Vladivostok.

While without details, officials believe the Russians are destroying the bridges to prevent an expected advance of Japanese troops. A large number of other structures have been mined, Mr. Stevens also stated.

HANG 10,000 PRO-GERMANS.

Philadelphia, Pa., Mar. 6.—"We will not be a strictly free people until 10,000 German propagandists in this state have been hanged to telegraph poles and shot full of holes." This statement was made by Howard Heinz, federal food administrator for Philadelphia, at a luncheon of food officials.

DROPS GERMAN.

WIRELESS OUTFIT SEIZED.

A wireless outfit sufficiently powerful to communicate with Germany, which was in possession of Richard Pfund, former manager of German telefunken plants at Sayville and Tuckerton, was seized in New York by Federal officials.

COW AND CALF GO TO EACH MAN IN SERVICE.

(By International News Service.) Montrose, Colo., March 6.—The Uncompaghe Valley Cattle and Horse Breeders' Association has decided to present every enlisted man with a thoroughbred cow and calf, and Adam Thomas, a wealthy rancher, has agreed to care for the animals until the soldiers return from the battle fronts. In case any herd increases it will remain the property of the man to whom the cow was allotted.

The deepest well in the world, already 7,363 feet deep, is now being drilled on the Goff farm, 8 miles northeast of Clarksburg, in northern West Virginia. They have reached a point where the temperature is 152 degrees and increasing a degree every 51 feet. This is the best place to drop the kaiser, so far found.

COMES TO A CLOSE

Session of County Agents of Western District Proves Profitable One.

The three day session of the District Farm Agents Meeting which met Monday in this city came to an end yesterday afternoon after a day of routine discussion of reports and plans for work.

Yesterday morning N. K. Elliott, of Lexington University, who is at the head of the horticultural work of the Department of Agriculture in Kentucky, addressed the county agents on the growing of vegetables, berries and small fruits.

The District Agricultural Board as organized will be composed of the following:

Simpson county—F. S. Smith and S. Y. Allen.

Todd county—W. A. McGraw and John W. Keeling.

Christian county—J. W. Dougherty and O. S. Denny.

Webster county—T. W. Johnson and W. T. Baker.

Caldwell county—H. W. Nichols and Henry Rice, Sr.

Logan county—Thomas Logan and R. N. Nance.

Trigg county—John S. Crenshaw and J. Frank Ladd.

Union county—to be supplied.

Garner E. Dalton is acting secretary until an election can be held, which is subject to call.

Hopkinsville will be the headquarters and meeting place of the district board.

Much time was devoted to the question of getting good seed corn and a plan has been worked out whereby the government will put an expert in each county for the next 30 days to assist the farmers in testing all seed corn before planting same. John W. Keeling will have charge of the work in this county.

It appears from tests and reports that there is only a small percentage of corn that is matured well enough to germinate and come up.

This is a very vital matter for the farmer to consider and it is hoped no person will be so short sighted as to put seed corn into the ground without first knowing whether it will sprout and grow.

"JUST LIKE PIE CRUST."

(By International News Service.) Milwaukee, March 6.—Because he is alleged to have broken his New Year's resolution to the effect that he would be a model husband during 1918, Winfred Mortimer, garage proprietor, has been made defendant in a divorce action brought by his wife, Leone. She alleges that he treated her cruelly, came home intoxicated and told her he was infatuated with another woman. All this after the resolution she says.

TWO AIRMEN SAME AGE, NAME, ALSO SAME CORPS.

(By International News Service.) San Diego, Cal., March 6.—An unusual case of dual identity has developed at the United States aviation school on North Island near here. Joseph J. Novak, age twenty-eight, enlisted as a private in the Aviation Corps at Kansas City, Mo., November 7, 1917. Joseph S. Novak, age twenty-eight, did likewise at Detroit on the same day. Both were assigned to the North Island school, reported there on the same day and were assigned to the same company. They are not related. The two men had never met before. They were born on the same day. There was much confusion during roll calls and in the enlistment records at the school until the identity of the students was fully revealed.

PLIES HIS TRADE WHILE BEING TAKEN TO PRISON.

(By International News Service.) San Francisco, March 6.—Patrick Murray, mechanic by trade, but pick-pocket by avocation, according to the police, is facing a penitentiary term as the result of his following Sherlock Holmes' injunction to do just the opposite from what is expected. Murray was picked up by a patrolman on suspicion. With a number of others he was placed in a patrol wagon. Keeping his eye on the guard he deftly abstracted several articles from the pocket of the man next him. The chauffeur of the "hurryup wagon" saw the whole performance, and when the prison was reached Murray was charged with grand larceny.

ODORLESS SKUNKS AS PETS.

(By International News Service.) Denver, Col., March 6.—Chow dogs, Pomeranian pups, monkeys and chameleons may have to fight for their mastery as household pets.

In the "pet section" of the recent National Western Stock Show, held here, two modish little animals were on display "to take the place of the luxurious lap dog."

The enterprising rancher explained that they were a sort of mephitic mateloid carnivore, blandly assuring visitors that the skunks had been properly deodorized.
